- 2) Payment is strictly in accordance with the applicable NZME terms and conditions. The Applicant and the Guarantor(s) agree that they have each read, understood and accepted the details set out in the applicable NZME terms and conditions.
- 3) Any credit provided by NZME will, unless specifically agreed to the contrary in writing by NZME, be on these credit terms. NZME may grant to, deny or withdraw credit from, the Applicant at any time in its sole discretion.
- 4) The Applicant must pay the amount shown on the invoice on or before the due date stipulated in the invoice ('Due Date'). Disputed amounts and claims on any grounds must be made within 30 days from the date printed on the relevant invoice or statement.
- 5) The Applicant and the Guarantor(s) acknowledge that the charges set out in the NZME rate cards are exclusive of GST, which is payable by the client.
- 6) Any government or industry taxes, and/or levies payable in relation to NZME's supply to the Applicant must be borne by the Applicant.
- 7) If any invoice remains unpaid after the Due Date NZME may also:
 - (a) Without notice refuse to publish any further advertisements for and/or make any further supply to the Applicant and suspend or cancel any or all of the Applicant's orders until payment is received;
 - (b) Charge the Applicant default interest on all unpaid amounts at the rate of 5% per month from the Due Date until the date full Payment is received;

In addition to the purposes for which information may be used that are set out in our privacy policy, personal information may also be used by NZME to determine whether to provide (and thereafter continue to provide) a credit account to the Applicant, for credit assessment and control debt recovery purposes. If the Applicant fails to provide the information requested, NZME may refuse to provide credit to the Applicant. Where any personal information is disclosed by the Applicant about identifiable individuals, the Applicant will ensure that the relevant individual is made aware of the information contained in the privacy policy and that the Applicant has the consent of those individuals to share such information with NZME. The Applicant authorises NZME to obtain information from, and disclose information to, credit reporting agencies and debt collection agencies for the above purposes.
- 11) If there is an intention to sell or otherwise transfer the Applicant's business or effective control of the Applicant's business, the Applicant must immediately notify NZME in writing and provide such information about the intended transferee as NZME may reasonably request. If the Applicant fails to complete its obligations under this clause then, notwithstanding that the Guarantor(s) may no longer own or operate the business of the Applicant, the Guarantor(s) will remain liable for the supply by NZME to the Applicant.
- 12) In the event that a Guarantor ceases to be a director of the Applicant, the Guarantor will remain liable under this Agreement until a new Guarantor signs a personal guarantee in favour of NZME and agrees to accept all of the obligations set out in this guarantee in place of the current Guarantor.

- 13) Neither the Guarantor(s) nor the Applicant may assign this credit contract or any part of it, or any credit balance which the Applicant may have with NZME to any third party without the prior written consent of NZME. Any discounts which may apply to the Applicant are rescinded if the Applicant is in breach of the applicable NZME terms and conditions.

- 17) In addition to cash and credit card, NZME accepts payment by direct debit or direct credit. If paying via these options the Applicant will email its remittance advice with completed payment details showing the date paid.
- 18) If at any time NZME does not enforce any of these credit terms and conditions or any guarantee, or grants the Customer time or other indulgence, NZME shall not be construed as having waived that term or condition or its right to later enforce that or any other term or condition.
- 19) The Applicant and the Guarantor(s) will be liable for all costs (including indirect and special damages) incurred by NZME as a result of any breach by the Applicant or Guarantor(s) of these Credit Terms and any steps taken by NZME to recover any amount owed by the Applicant or the Guarantor(s) (including costs on a solicitor and client basis).
